

CHAMPAGNE
de VENOGE

WITH THE RULING OF MAY 25, 1728, LOUIS XV ALLOWED CHAMPAGNE WINES TO BE MARKETED AND TRANSPORTED IN BOTTLES. AT LAST, THE SPARKLING PROCESS COULD TAKE PLACE IN THE BOTTLE: CHAMPAGNE WAS BORN. DE VENOGE DECIDED TO HONOUR THIS KING WITH A PRESTIGE CUVEE ONLY MADE IN THE BEST VINTAGES.

Louis XV
2014

TASTING NOTE:

The cuvée Louis XV 2014 is rich and complex. Notes of agrums and yellow fruits. The palate is complex and mineral. Powerful with great tension and a very fresh final.

This Vintage 2014 is produced without malolactic fermentation

Excellent aging potential
